Application

- Please complete the application, and email us your resume (with two professional references).
- Applications will be received till April 30.
- After this time, we'll review all applications and be in touch with you either way by May 7.
- While we aren't able to invite everyone to the next step, we're grateful for each person's interest.

Conversation

- If you're invited to proceed, we'll plan a convenient time to talk sometime between May 7-14.
- Our desire in this conversation is to get to know you a bit better, to answer any questions you may have, and to help us both discern whether this role feels like a good fit.

Discernment & Decision

- After this conversation, our leadership team will consider things and make a decision about whether to offer you the role.
- We will get in touch with you to communicate our decision either way by May 21.
- If you're invited to the role and you accept, we'll communicate this to our community, arrange the relevant criminal record / vulnerable sector checks, and enter into a trial period.

Trial

- On May 31, we'll have you facilitate children's time at our Sunday service and begin a one-month trial period, during which you will be paid for any children's times you facilitate.
- The trial helps us discern together whether this is a good fit in reality.
- At the end of this period, we'll plan a follow-up conversation sometime early July to talk about how things went and how we feel about moving forward. Either party is free at this time to discontinue things if they so choose.

Invitation & Blessing

- If both parties wish to proceed after the trial period, we'll finalize details (scheduling, etc.) and arrange a time (during one of our services) to formally and joyfully welcome and pray for you as you begin your role. This will likely happen sometime in September.
